MORE THAN A SCORE

We believe that you were born with a unique set of strengths. Standardized test scores and GPA measure only a fraction of your abilities. Indigo measures a much wider range of attributes, helping you to discover areas in which you will thrive.

THERE ARE 3 SECTIONS TO THIS PROFILE:

- 1. Style "How you do things." This section describes your behavioral style.
 - Knowing your style helps you choose an environment in which you will thrive.
- 2. Motivators "Why you do things." This section describes what motivates you.
 - Knowing your motivators helps you choose a college program and career that is personally meaningful.
- 3. Next Steps This section provides possible education and career paths.

STYLE: YOUR STYLE

This describes your basic, natural behavioral style. Everyone is different and there is no right or wrong way to be.

ricardo wants to be seen as a responsible person, and will avoid behavior that could be seen by others as irresponsible. He can be open, patient and tolerant of differences. His natural quality of being nonjudgmental is a great strength. Because he is receptive and listens well, he excels in gathering information. He tends to build a close relationship with a relatively small group of associates. He looks to people for support and inner-satisfaction as a way to reach his personal goals. ricardo likes to set his own pace. When others try to rush him, he feels threatened and may balk. He requires many good reasons, as well as the benefits involved, before agreeing to making changes. He is usually steady, easygoing and relaxed. He prefers to help and support others rather than compete against them. Loyalty and being a team player are usually his goals. He is a good, steady, dependable team member. At times, ricardo would like to slow the world down and cut out some of the activities people want him involved in.

ricardo adheres to company policy and doesn't break the rules just for the sake of breaking them. Once he makes a decision, he can be organized in carrying it out. Once he has arrived at a decision, he can be tough-minded and unbending. He has made his decision after gathering much data, and he probably won't want to repeat the process. He prefers to plan his work and work his plan. Others may find it refreshing to have him on their team. ricardo may be reluctant to initiate new approaches to doing things. If he is shown the benefits, he will consider new procedures. He uses logic to assist him in decision making. This tendency is helpful to others in his group. When challenged he can become objective, searching hard for facts and figures. This may be his way of defending his decisions. When faced with a tough decision, he will seek information and analyze it thoroughly.

ricardo does not enjoy confrontation for confrontation's sake. He feels he can win through patience and resolve. He may guard some information unless he is asked specific questions. He will not willingly share unless he is comfortable with the knowledge he possesses about the topic. He is somewhat reserved with those he doesn't trust or know. After trust has been established, he may be open and candid. He likes to know what is expected of him in a working relationship and have the duties and responsibilities of others who will be involved explained. Communication is accomplished best by well-defined avenues. ricardo likes having others initiate the conversation. He can then assess the situation and respond accordingly. He tends to be possessive of information; that is, he doesn't voluntarily share information with others outside of his team. This may be a blessing, or a curse, to his superiors. He usually is considerate, compassionate and accepting of others; however, on some occasions can become stubborn. Stubbornness surfaces when his ideals and beliefs are confronted. Rarely does he display his emotions; that is, he projects a good poker face. Others may get the feeling that he is unfriendly, when in reality he is not.

MOTIVATORS: INTRODUCTION TO WHAT MOTIVATES YOU

This section describes why you do things. Motivators are like an engine beneath the hood of a car. Motivators aren't easily seen from the outside but they are what power you. This is important to your college and career choice because motivators correlate directly to fulfillment and meaning. Most people are happiest selecting a major and career based on their top two motivators.

When interpreting your motivator scores, think of your motivators as related to a fire hose. Your top motivators are a widespread stream that covers all aspects of your life. Your bottom motivators are like a concentrated stream and only appear in specific areas where that motivator matters to you.

The Indigo Assessment measures six motivators:

- 1. Aesthetic Desire for form, harmony and beauty.
- 2. Individualistic Desire for control, rank and power.
- 3. Social Desire to help others and solve social problems.
- 4. Theoretical Desire to learn for the sake of knowledge.
- 5. Traditional Desire to live by a set of rules, standards or beliefs.
- 6. Utilitarian Desire for a return on investment of time, energy or money.

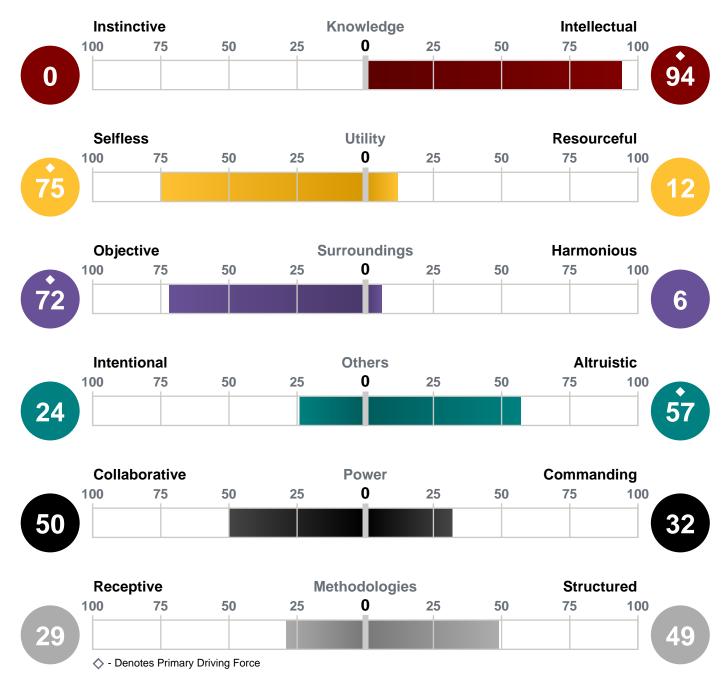

The next page ranks your relative passion for each of the six motivators. The pages following your ranking list your motivators in order of importance to you and how each motivator may affect your life decisions at this time.

For more information about motivators visit www.IndigotheAssessment.com .

DRIVING FORCES GRAPH

Eduard Spranger first defined six primary types or categories to define human motivation and drive. These six types are Theoretical, Utilitarian, Aesthetic, Social, Individualistic and Traditional. The 12 Driving Forces are derived by looking at each motivator on a continuum and describing both ends. All of the twelve descriptors are based on six keywords, one for each continuum. The six keywords are Knowledge, Utility, Surroundings, Others, Power and Methodologies. Focus on activities and work that relate to your highest driving forces scores.

MOTIVATORS: HOW THE THEORETICAL MOTIVATOR MAY AFFECT YOUR LIFE DECISIONS

High theoretical scores indicate a desire to discover truths by learning for the sake of knowing. Typically, high "theoreticals" like to study, read, seek knowledge, and research. If theoretical is one of your top two motivators, you will not feel satisfied unless you are continually challenged with new information and given opportunities to learn new things.

- ricardo will seek the "truth," yet "truth" is relative and will be defined by his own standards.
- He has a keen interest in formulating theories and asking questions to assist in problem solving.
- ricardo never walked by a bookstore or library he didn't want to visit.
- People who talk on a subject without adequate knowledge will frustrate him and cause him to lose interest in the conversation.
- ricardo may use his specialized knowledge of a topic to control the situation.
- Adding to the body of knowledge may be more important than the application of the knowledge.
- The process is not as important to him as the results.
- ricardo will spend time and money helping people who have committed their lives to educating themselves and others.
- He may have difficulty putting down a good book.
- ricardo will be comfortable in any position that requires knowledge to excel.

MOTIVATORS: HOW THE SOCIAL MOTIVATOR MAY AFFECT YOUR LIFE DECISIONS

High social scores indicate the desire to help others and an inherent love of people. Typically "socials" are altruistic and are motivated to give back to society in some way. They might volunteer, spend time on community projects and charities, or solve global, social, and environmental problems. If social is one of your top two motivators, you will not feel satisfied if you are not doing something that helps others.

- Helping the homeless may be one of his concerns.
- He is generous with his time, talent and resources for those in need.
- He will have a keen interest in improving society.
- ricardo is patient and sensitive to others.
- ricardo will be generous with time, research and information on social problems.
- Saying "no" is difficult when others need his time or talent.
- He believes charities should be supported.

MOTIVATORS: HOW THE TRADITIONAL MOTIVATOR MAY AFFECT YOUR LIFE DECISIONS

High traditional scores indicate a desire to live by a certain set of standards or beliefs that provide a basis for making life decisions. Typically, high "traditionals" have a very strong "faith" or strong cultural values. If this is a primary motivator, it's important to identify where your traditional values stem from. You can have a high traditional score and not embrace a religion, for example. You may base your traditions on family, a strong internal moral compass, or culture. If traditional is one of your top two motivators, you will not feel satisfied unless your beliefs are respected and you are allowed to live and work in a way that aligns with those beliefs.

- ricardo needs to be able to pick and choose the traditions and set of beliefs to which he will adhere.
- He will have strong beliefs within a system that he feels most comfortable with, and he will not be as strong in his beliefs or approach if he lacks that interest level.
- ricardo at times will evaluate others based on his rules for living.
- ricardo lets his conscience be his guide.

MOTIVATORS: HOW THE INDIVIDUALISTIC MOTIVATOR MAY AFFECT YOUR LIFE DECISIONS

High individualistic scores indicate the desire to gain power, lead others, and advance in position. Typically, high "individualistics" want to appear in the public eye. This motivator is sometimes called the political value. If individualistic is one of your top two motivators, you will not feel satisfied unless you are in control of your own destiny and are publically recognized for your contributions.

- ricardo can be assertive in meeting his needs.
- At times ricardo can be very competitive.
- The amount of control he attempts will increase if he has strong feelings about the issues involved with the situation. If, however, he has little interest in the issues involved, he will not see the need for exercising control.
- He will evaluate each situation individually and determine how much or how little control he will want to exercise.

MOTIVATORS: HOW THE AESTHETIC MOTIVATOR MAY AFFECT YOUR LIFE DECISIONS

High aesthetic scores indicate a desire to experience form, beauty and harmony in the world. Typically "aesthetics" need an attractive living and working environment. They may enjoy nature, various art forms and can be excellent long-range planners due to their desire to create harmonious outcomes. A high score does not necessarily mean that you have talents in creative artistry. If aesthetic is one of your top two motivators, you will not feel satisfied unless your physical environment is appealing to you and your aesthetic value is utilized in your working environment.

- Unpleasant surroundings will not stifle his creativity.
- He is a very practical person who is not sensitive to being in harmony with his surroundings.
- The utility of "something" is more important than its beauty, form and harmony.
- Intellectually, ricardo can see the need for beauty, but has difficulty buying the finer things in life.
- ricardo's passion in life will be found in one or two of the other motivators discussed in this report.
- ricardo is not necessarily worried about form and beauty in his environment.
- He wants to take a practical approach to events.

MOTIVATORS: HOW THE UTILITARIAN MOTIVATOR MAY AFFECT YOUR LIFE DECISIONS

High utilitarian scores indicate a desire to get a return on investment. Investments may be financial, time or energy. Typically "utilitarians" focus on results and may be money motivated. This value often includes the practical affairs of the business world- the production, marketing and consumption of goods, and the accumulation of tangible wealth. If utilitarian is one of your top two motivators, you will not feel satisfied unless you feel like you are receiving a return on your investment of time or energy.

- Overemphasizing the value of money will bore ricardo and turn him off.
- Financial security is not a necessity, but a long-term goal.
- ricardo will not use money as a scorecard to impress others.
- ricardo will accept his financial situation and not strive to change it.
- ricardo will use his money to satisfy his true motivation.
- ricardo will seek a comfort level in his standard of living and try to maintain that level.
- ricardo will not be swayed or motivated by what he feels are excessive material goals.
- There is not a tremendous need for ricardo to have great sums of money.
- Money and material possessions are not a high priority for ricardo.
- He is motivated by internal beliefs and does not feel compelled to impress others with material things.
